DEDICATION

Mr. William McCarl, the 1961 Comet is yours. Yours because you have contributed not only to our class and the whole school, but to the entire community as well. Yours because you have faithfully dedicated your past three years of time, energy, and experience to make our school what it is today. Yours because you have been an excellent leader, an able English-speech teacher and annual sponsor, and our friend.

In thanks for all of these contributions, we, the Senior class of 1961, wish to dedicate the Comet to you, "Coach."

SENIOR CLASS

A large, stylized black starburst graphic with multiple sharp points. The words "SENIOR CLASS" are printed in a bold, sans-serif font across the center of the starburst.

William Paysen
Women are his worst enemies, but the Bible says, "Love thy enemies."

David Freeman Greater men than I may have lived, but I doubt it.

Mary Jo Beisch
Her voice is the outlet for the music in her soul.

Karen LeStrange
She intends to be a secretary for a handsome boss with plans to marry.

Berniece Gerdes
She laughs with the world and has a good time; with a song on her lips and a man on her mind.

Leila Meyer
She can live without poetry or walking, but who in the world can live without talking?

Dianna Eaton Flirting is the gentle art of making a man feel pleased with himself.

Russell Cook
A winning smile quick and steady from a football hero strong and steady.

Karen Hawks
Sing away sorrow, dance away care. We'll have a good time;
come along if you dare.

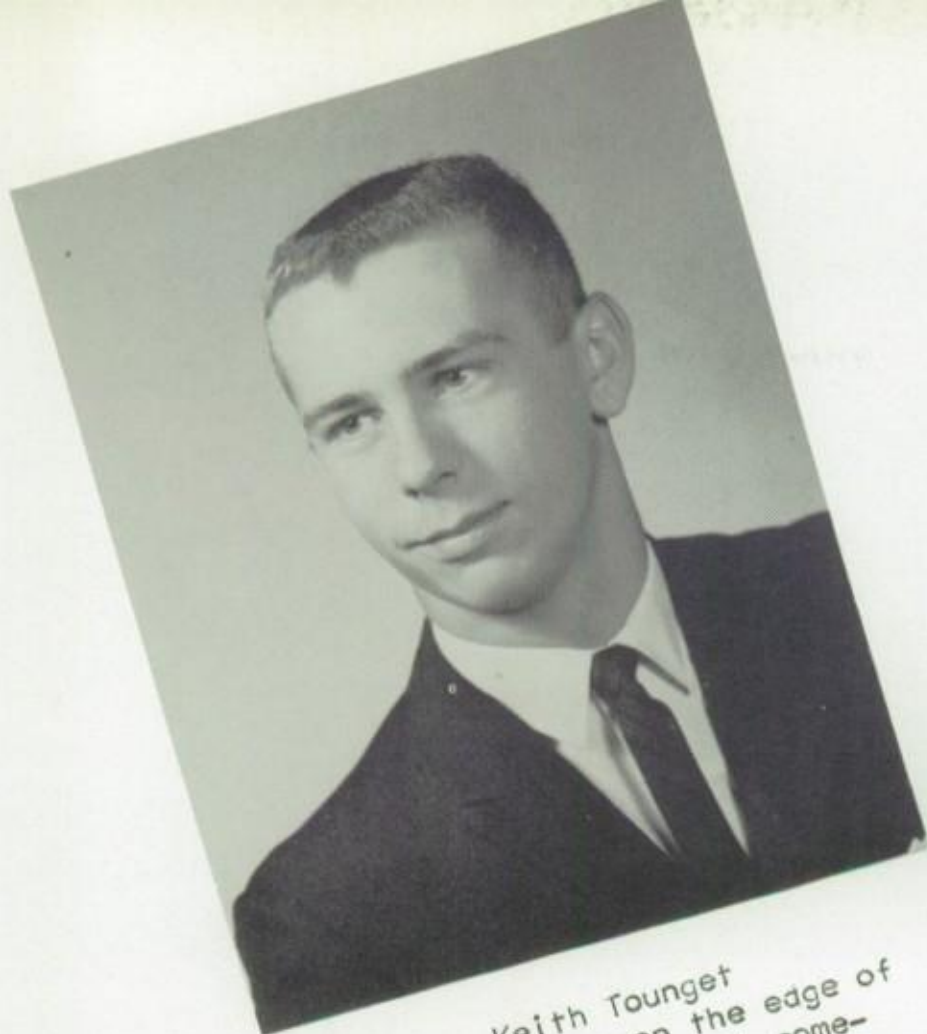

Sandra Bedel
A saintly face behind which plots a brain that's full of devilish thoughts.

Gary Snyder
Why should the devil have all the good times.

Frances Hedberg
Has the mail come yet?

Keith Tounget
I am standing on the edge of a great career. Will someone please give me a push?

Don Bahr
I worry little and study less; that's my idea of happiness.

Miriam Erickson
She's here! I hear her giggle.

Jeralyn Brotherson
Play and I'll play with you;
Study and you'll study alone.

Richard Blum
Full of fun and mischief too, doing things he shouldn't do.

Richard Gosch
Bait the hook well; this fish will bite.

Kathleen Raine
Next to her head she likes her red hair best.

Joyce Clausen Quiet, shy, never bold, with a smile of fourteen carat gold.

Larry Richardson
Heaven sent him down—
Heaven knows why.

Robert Pederson
I thought I saw him studying,
but it was a dream.

Sandra Mohr One's night life certainly interferes with one's school work.

Carol Rodman
Love makes the world go round.
Catch me, I'm getting dizzy

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Senior class of 1961, being of sound faculties (sound, we've plenty of) do make and attest to this as our last will and testament whereby we leave the following memorable attributes to the fortunate? underclassmen.

Donald Bahr leaves his mechanical ability to Bruce Johnson.

Sandra Bedel leaves her innocent looks (we know how guilty she is) to Marlis Tebben.

Mary Jo Beisch leaves her soprano singing ability to Sophia Fredrichs in hopes that it will bring her up to a contralto.

Doc Blum leaves his pop bottle to Elberta Ziegman, Dianne Gonnerman, and Shirley Campbell. We hope they enjoy it as much as he has.

We hear that Jerrie Brotherson is getting her hair cut, so we'll will it to Mary Jane Hink and Lana Sanders. Don't brush it too much, girls!

Joyce Clausen wills her meekness to Sally Kelly and Carolyn Maynard. We are sure that she has enough for both.

Russ Cook leaves his track ability to Alvin Greve. Better hustle, Art.

Dianna Eaton leaves her long eyelashes and the ability to use them to Bonnie Vogel. Look out!

Miriam Erickson wishes to leave a part of her industriousness to Joe Comstock. She feels she has enough to spare, and Joe can use it.

Dave Freeman leaves a few of his brains to Gabe Boeckman. Not too many though, 'cause he'll need them for college.

Berniece Gerdes wills one of her kittens to the junior class for a mascot on condition that they keep it as fat as it is now.

Rich Gosch leaves his car to Pat Lawler. Maybe you can use parts of it to repair your own, Pat.

Karen Hawks leaves Jim Shields some of her shyness and the ability to get along in a calm, serene manner.

Frances Hedberg wills her quiet nature to the "Sophomore Quintette," who will use it, we hope.

Karen LeStrange leaves her flashing eyes and bright smile to Ray Bruns and Dennis Rosener. Just the eyes and smile, boys!

Leila Meyer wills her cheerfulness to Roger Boger, who seems to find it hard to laugh.

Sandra Mohr leaves her late hours to Larry Bundt and Alan Sanders so they can have fun too.

Bill Paysen wills his "woman hating" to T Way, who'd like to date 'em all.

Bob Pederson leaves his English ability to Ruth. Hope it doesn't hurt her.

Kathleen Raine leaves her red hair to Judy Dreessen. With that figure! Like WOW!

Larry Richardson wills his annoying habits to Roger Campbell, who already has plenty.

Gary Snyder leaves Kathleen Wollesson at WLHS much to her disgust.

Keith Tounget wills the passion pits to Dennis Snyder and Klaus. Not every night, fellas!

PROPHECY

Let's focus our camera on the White House where Leila Meyer, the first lady president of the United States, has called a reunion of her old high school class of '61.

The first person to be introduced is Jerrie Brotherson, the marriage counselor. She has just been divorced from her fourth husband and at the age of thirty has decided that married life is not for her.

Miriam Erickson is introduced next. She has left her five boys at home with her husband Louie. He feels that kids are a good advertisement for his diaper company, so look out!

Joyce Clausen is married to her hometown sweetheart. They were farming and raising corn, but decided that it was too boring and decided to raise cain instead.

Keith Tounget is back from the Navy with letters pouring in from every port.

Don Bahr is now head mechanic in a toy kiddie-car garage.

Richard Gosch has achieved his dream and has an easy white collar job in an air-conditioned office of his own.

Mary Jo Beisch is the head nurse in the general hospital in Chicago.

Richard Blum couldn't be here today. He is in Rome at the Olympics competing in the pole vault for the United States.

Russell Cook and Gary Snyder went into partnership on a farm and now have a one-thousand acre spread to take care of.

Karen Hawks has worked her way up to be the secretary to the president of the Mutual Insurance Company in Omaha.

Bill Paysen has made his million and has taken up the life of a bachelor playboy.

Sandra Bedel has gone from babysitting to being the head of a large orphanage.

Dianna Eaton and Sandra Mohr are living in a luscious apartment in New York and both are prominent social figures.

David Freeman is a head physicist in the big General Electric Laboratory.

Berniece Gerdes has just arrived amid her troupe of kittens. She is taking a few days off from her latest smash hit musical.

Karen LeStrange and Frances Hedberg are now happily married to millionaires and living a life of ease.

Larry Richardson has just made his first fortune selling machinery for his uncle.

Robert Pederson is the head of a factory which makes high-heeled combat boots for short slobs.

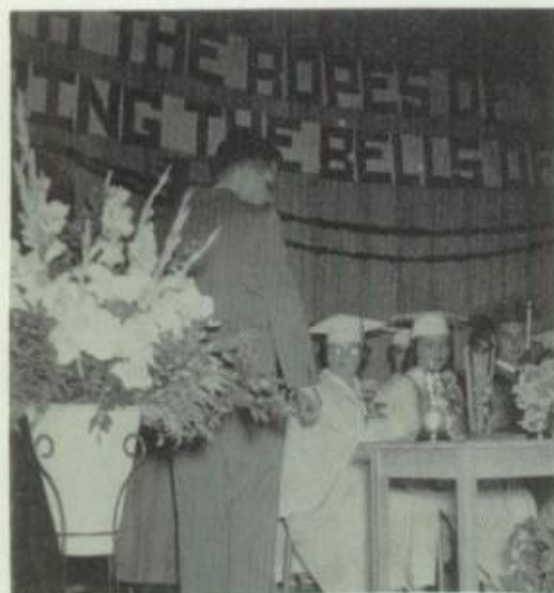

Kathleen "Sunshine" Raine is down at police headquarters arguing her case after knocking the top off the Empire State Building with her new jet airplane.

Since this completes the roster for the class of '61, we will now return you to the studio for another exciting chapter in the saga of the life of "Elvits Pretzel, Boy Minister."
